A Gulo Film production

for Dodights/NDR Naturfilm

In cooperation with WDR, Terra Mater and Morag Loves Wolves

Nature writes the best scripts. That was what the filmmakers had to hope for. Nobody has ever dared to make a major documentation taking on this challenging subject. You have to be pretty crazy to make a film in winter in a vast open environment where nobody lives and that is extremely difficult to reach. A film telling a unique story through emotional images and shot under such difficult conditions deserves the main award.
