Cinematography: Moritz Katz, Braydon Moloney & Pim Niesten

An ATARA Filmproduction for doclights/NDR Naturfilm

You need images to understand the world. In the eyes of the jury, Moritz Katz and Braydon Moloney have been most successful with their images.

Next to the giant robber crabs they have set a humorous and spectacular stage for the Christmas Island's small stories. Breath-taking images follow the lives of those strange crabs on land and in the water. Everything fits together. Technically and visually challenging time lapse images, skilful tracking shots, unusual perspectives, and terrific aerial images at a level that can compete internationally.
