Europe's Far North is home to the realm of myths and legends, to giants and gnomes, long polar days and black polar nights. The stories written by animal protagonists are a match to mythology. The film's fantastic images including some of the shiest forest-dwellers paint a breath-taking portrait of the Far North accentuated by authentic music and a narrator who like a true storyteller immerses us in the polar magic. The Nordic Nature Award goes to: Lapland – Kingdom of Reindeers.
